One of Scottsbluff's newest businesses is already looking to expand. Currently, San Antonio based SWBC has 180 employees at their Scottsbluff Office. Greg Hermanson, the VP of Human Resources, says their first couple of orientation classes started with 60 or so employees, but operations have ramped up very quickly. He says this is the fourth job fair SWBC is hosting in the past six months, and they have many jobs to fill ranging from entry-level to management positions. Hermanson says that within the next four months, he hopes the Scottsbluff office grows by an additional 210 positions. He encourages everybody looking to apply to fill out an online application before the job fair, which is slated for May 5th at the SWBC in Scottsbluff.
