The TCD eCenter Graduates It's First Entrepreneur

The Twin Cities Development eCenter celebrated their first graduate. Josh Curtis, owner of Clarity Financial began in the eCenter Entrepreneur and Startup Incubator Program in 2014. Since then he has come a long way. Adopting the principals of the program and through his own hard work, Josh grew his business to a sustainable endeavor that is now located in Gering.

Josh worked in the financial services industry and decided to branch out on his own. With only a 15% chance of success in this industry, Josh and Clarity Financial defied the odds.
